

Small Business Development Centers Resources

Maine Small Business Development Centers offer live and online workshops, personal advising, and numerous resources including information on the following:

- Creating a business plan
- Financing your business
- Managing your books
- Understanding taxes
- Marketing
- Hiring employees
- Understanding health-care obligations
- Understanding fraud and internal controls
- And more

SBDC also offers specific information for agricultural and food-producing businesses as well as for businesses owned by veterans.

For More Information

Visit mainesbdc.org or contact Certified Business Advisor Rose Creps at rose.creps@ceimaine.org or 207-319-4316.